

DAVID B. WHITE

BIOGRAPHY

David B. White is the Chief Executive Officer of Burns White. He has more than 30 years of legal experience representing a spectrum of clients from Fortune 500 corporations, to small, emerging businesses, and individuals across a variety of industries.

Dave brings to his clients a combination of demonstrated legal experience, practical business acumen, and strong leadership skills as a team builder and project manager.

“Our clients’ interests and imagination truly inspire a sense of teamwork that is both motivating and highly successful in solving litigation problems.”

Dave’s practice spans several areas of litigation, including financial institution, commercial, products liability, professional malpractice, employment, and energy. Both a litigator and a trial attorney, he employs other forms of dispute resolution when doing so is in the best interests of the client. Dave also is routinely asked to serve as a mediator in a variety of litigation matters and has experience managing the administration of class action claims.
