

ANDREW W. CLIFFORD

BIOGRAPHY

Andrew W. Clifford is an Associate in Burns White's Litigation Practice Group. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Clifford served as a Judicial Law Clerk for The Honorable Kelley T. D. Streib in the Butler County Court of Common Pleas. There, he drafted and prepared judicial opinions and orders; performed legal research on various Pennsylvania law topics; assisted the Court in the administration of its judicial docket; and was solely responsible for all aspects of case management for the Court's high-volume of work. While attending law school, Mr. Clifford interned with The Honorable David N. Wecht in the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, and The Honorable Cynthia Reed Eddy in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Clifford is admitted to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, and the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of Duquesne University School of Law, and was a Big East Academic All-Star and Scholar Athlete at the University of Pittsburgh where he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree. Mr. Clifford currently serves as a Court Appointed Special Advocate for CASA, a nonprofit organization that provides advocacy for the best interests of abused and neglected children within the child welfare system.
