

DANIEL P. MARTZ

BIOGRAPHY

Daniel P. Martz is a skilled trial attorney who focuses his practice on the defense of complex claims in areas of civil litigation including professional liability, medical malpractice, general negligence, insurance (including bad faith), and commercial litigation. Mr. Martz has tried over 35 cases to verdict as lead counsel in state and federal courts, and participated in many more as co-counsel. He has also handled licensing and credentialing actions for healthcare professionals before various state licensing boards and private insurers, and served as local counsel in class-action cases of various types filed in the Court of Common Pleas for Philadelphia County and U.S. District Courts in Philadelphia and other jurisdictions.

Further, in the courtroom Mr. Martz enlists the support of top scientific and medical experts, and employs the latest digital technology for the courtroom presentation of complex demonstrative evidence. Mr. Martz also has extensive experience in the use of Alternative Dispute Resolution to resolve matters via arbitration and mediation proceedings, and, as such, is frequently appointed to serve as an arbitrator in compulsory arbitration matters for the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas.

Mr. Martz received his Juris Doctor from The University of San Diego School of Law, and his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Arizona.
