

DANIEL W. INADOMI

BIOGRAPHY

Daniel Inadomi is a Member in Burns White's Pittsburgh office. His practice involves a wide range of commercial litigation matters, including extracontractual litigation and financial institution litigation. He has extensive experience representing clients in complex, high-stakes disputes in both state and federal courts, as well as arbitration.

Mr. Inadomi also advises clients on cybersecurity and data protection issues, including data breach investigation and response. In addition, he works with clients to ensure compliance with state and federal data security and data privacy laws and regulations. Mr. Inadomi holds a CIPP/US certification from the International Association of Privacy Professionals.

Mr. Inadomi graduated from Middlebury College in 2007 with degrees in Economics and Biochemistry. He went on to receive his JD from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 2011. As a law student, he served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Donetta Ambrose in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. Mr. Inadomi also worked for the Pittsburgh Pirates in their Baseball Operations Department, both during and after law school, before beginning his legal career.

Mr. Inadomi is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and West Virginia, as well as the United States District Courts for the Eastern, Middle and Western Districts of Pennsylvania.
